

Legal Communication Skills

Module 2

Parts of Speech and Capital Letters

	Page
Introduction	3
Part A: Parts of speech	3
1 Nouns	5
2 Pronouns	7
2.1 Different types of pronouns	8
2.2 Relative pronouns introduce relative clauses	9
2.3 Pronoun agreement	11
2.4 Common pronoun errors	13
3 Adjectives	15
3.1 Kinds of adjectives	15
3.2 Degrees of comparison	16
3.3 Adjectival phrases	17
4 Articles	17
4.1 Indefinite articles (a, an)	17
4.2 Definite article (the)	17
4.3 Determiners	17
5 Verbs	18
5.1 Conjugation of verbs	18
5.2 More verb terminology	21

	Page
6 Adverbs	25
6.1 Types of adverbs	25
6.2 adverb as sentence modifiers	25
6.3 Comparative adverbs	26
6.4 Good uses of adverbs – instead of clichés and redundancy	26
7 Conjunctions	27
8 Prepositions	28
8.1 Prepositional phrases	29
8.2 Prepositions may be confused with adverbs of time and place	29
8.3 Object of the preposition	30
8.4 Avoid ending a sentence with a preposition (generally1)	30
Part B: Capital letters and grammar helps	31
9 Capital letters	31
9.1 When to use capital letters	31
9.2 Capitals in legal communication	32
10 Grammar helps	33
Part C: Answers to test yourself	34
Bibliography	35