

Testamentary capacity, assistance to the vulnerable testator, aspects of execution, unworthiness to inherit, representation, accrual, and simultaneous death

	Page
1 Introduction	1
1.1 Background	1
1.2 Purpose of Seminar	2
1.3 Topics	2
2 Testamentary capacity and the role will-drafters should play	4
2.1 Introduction to testamentary capacity	4
2.2 Statutory testamentary capacity	6
2.3 Section 4	7
2.4 Age	7
2.5 Nature and effect that the testator should understand	8
2.6 Onus of proof	8
2.7 Mental capacity - sound mind	10
2.8 Common law test for testamentary (mental) capacity	12
2.9 The test in Banks v Goodfellow	13
2.10 The role a will-drafter can play	15
2.11 Other guiding principles	16
2.12 Ante and post mortem tests	19
3 From strict formalities to no formalities	22
3.1 Scenario in the Van der Westhuizen's case	22
3.2 Importance of basic requirements in section 2(1)(a)	24
3.3 Old/impaired or weak person	26
3.4 Drafting and Execution	29
3.5 Frail or Illiterate testator	29
3.6 Mark/fingerprints	31
3.7 Sign on behalf of testator	32
3.8 Guided signature	33
3.9 Rescue provision if there is non-compliance	34

	Page
4 Unworthiness/Representation	60
4.1 General principles of common law unworthiness	60
4.2 Specific unworthiness	61
4.3 Other conduct towards the deceased	62
4.4 Application of the unworthiness principle outside of the law of succession	62
4.5 Statutory unworthiness	63
4.6 Relief for persons involved in the execution process – Section 4A(2)(b)	65
4.7 Section 4A(3) – Trustee/executor/guardian	67
4.8 Representation and accrual	69
Simultaneous deaths	70