

The Uniqueness of South African Trusts

Part 1

The Creation and Termination of Trusts

	Page
1. Introduction	3
1.1 Terminology	3
1.2 A word of caution	4
1.3 The history & uniqueness of South African Trust Law	5
1.4 The legal nature of different forms of trust	7
A. The creation of a Trust	18
2. Parties to a Trust	18
2.1 The founder	18
2.2 The trustees	20
2.3 Beneficiaries	32
3. Acts of creation of a trust	43
3.1 Trusts formed by agreement	43
3.2 Trusts formed by means of a will	45
3.3 Trusts formed by means of a court order	45
3.4 Trusts formed by means of a statute or on statutory authority	46
4. Essential requirements for a valid trust	47
4.1 Intention of the Founder/Testator	47
4.2 Creating an obligation	48
4.3 Trust property to be defined	48
4.4 Trust object to be defined	49
4.5 The trust must be legal	54
4.6 “Sham” Trust – A consequence of invalidity	55

	Page
5. Formalities for creation of a trust	55
5.1 General formalities	55
5.2 Specific requirements for lodging	56
6. Possible reasons for errors made when creating a trust	59
7. Checklist for the most common drafting errors with Inter Vivos Trusts	60
8. Checklist for the most common reasons for invalidity of an Inter Vivos Trust	62
B. Termination of Trusts in South Africa	66
9. The Who, When, What & How of the termination of a trust	66
9.1 When and how?	66
9.2 Termination by the court	67
9.3 Termination formalities	68
9.4 Termination of a statutory trust	69
9.5 Destination of trust assets after termination	69
9.6 Termination of testamentary trusts	69
9.7 Tax and Duty implications of termination	70
9.8 Trustees duties continue after termination	70
10. What does the future hold for trusts	70
11. Bibliography for the principal sources	72