

The Uniqueness of South African trusts

Part 2:

The administration of trusts and trusteeships

	Page
1. Introduction	4
1.1. Terminology	4
1.2. A word of caution	5
1.3. Trust health barometer	6
1.4. The most common errors made with administration of trusts	7
1.5. What then constitutes bad trust administration?	7
1.6. The most common challenges with trust administration	8
2. Trusteeship	9
2.1. Introduction: what is it?	9
2.2. Trustee's legal capacity, qualifications & number of trustees	10
2.2.1. Legal capacity of a trustee	10
2.2.2. Trustee qualifications	10
2.2.3. Impartiality as a qualification of a trustee	12
2.2.4. Number of trustees	14
2.3. The post formation acquiring of trusteeship during administration	15
2.3.1. In terms of (ITO) the trust instrument	15
2.3.2. ITO the powers of the master	15
2.3.3. ITO the TPC Act	16
2.3.4. According to case law (High Court)	17
2.3.5. According to case law (SCA - Lupacchini case)	18
2.3.6. Other imperative statutory prescriptions	20
2.4. Termination of trusteeship	21
2.4.1. Trustee merely vacating office	21
2.4.2. Removal in terms of the trust deed	22
2.4.3. Vacating the office of trustee by resignation	23
2.4.3.1. Resignation ITO the trust deed	23
2.4.3.2. Resignation ITO section 21 of TPC Act	23
2.4.3.3. When resignation of a trustee takes effect	24
2.4.4. Trustee removal by the master	26
2.4.5. Trustee removal by the court	27

	Page
3. Trust administration	33
3.1. The general principles of trust administration	33
3.2. Fiduciary duty of a trustee	33
3.2.1. What is the fiduciary duty?	33
3.2.2. The different sub-fiduciary duties	35
3.2.3. Trustees' conflicts of interests	36
3.2.4. The relevance of the King IV report to conflicts of interests	38
3.2.5. What can happen if there is a conflict of interest?	39
3.3. General duties of trustees	41
3.4. Duties determined by common law	42
3.4.1. Duty to give security to the Master unless exempted	42
3.4.2. Duty to take possession of the trust property	42
3.4.3. Duty to observe the trust deed (and interpret the trust deed)	43
3.4.4. Duty to keep the trust property separate	48
3.4.5. Duty to always comply with the duty of active supervision and inquiry	61
3.4.6. Duty to preserve the trust property	62
3.4.7. Duty to always act in good faith and jointly	63
3.4.8. Duty to always be impartial and independent	69
3.4.9. Duty to transfer income and capital to the beneficiaries	79
3.4.10. Duty to account to beneficiaries	80
3.4.11. Duty to make the trust property more productive	81
3.5. Duties determined by statute	82
3.5.1. Duty to lodge the trust instrument with the Master of the High Court, including any amendments to the trust deed (S 4)	83
3.5.2. Duty to furnish his address to the Master (S 5)	84
3.5.3. Duty to give security to the Master unless exempted and obtain from the master authority to act (S 6)	84
3.5.4. Duty to act with care, diligence and skill in the affairs of the trust (S 9)	86
3.5.5. Duty to open a bank account (S 10)	86
3.5.6. Duty to register the trust property in terms of section 11 and keep the trust property identifiable as such	87
3.5.7. Duty to account to the Master in terms of section 16 if called upon to do so by the Master	88

	Page
3.5.8. Duty to keep safe custody and control of documents of the trust in terms of section 17	88
3.5.9 Duty to comply with other statutes	89
3.6. Powers of trustees	91
3.6.1. Power to sell / alienate property	92
3.6.2. Power to let property	92
3.6.3. Power to exchange property	92
3.6.4. Power to mortgage property	92
3.6.5. Power to buy/acquire insurance	93
3.6.6. Power of investment	93
3.6.7. Power to operate a business	93
3.6.8. Power to borrow money	93
3.6.9. Power to guarantee a loan / stand surety	94
3.6.10. Power to employ experts	94
3.7. Remuneration of trustees	94
3.8. Legal actions by or against trusts	94
3.8.1. Who can bring an action and how?	94
3.8.2. Where can an action be brought? / jurisdiction of the court	97
4. Variation of a trust deed	97
4.1. Common law variation by the parties	98
4.2. Powers of court to vary a trust	107
4.2.1. In terms of the common law	107
4.2.2. In terms of the TPC Act	108
4.3. Common law powers of variation of a testamentary trust	109
5. Bibliography	115